

Settlement with “K” Line

July 25, 2018

In September 2016, our employees sent erroneous e-mails to our customers which were not based on the facts regarding the financial situation of “K” Line. “K” Line thereafter responded by filing a lawsuit at the Tokyo District Court in December 2016 demanding damages in relation to such e-mails.

We and our parent company, Kintetsu World Express, Inc., acknowledged the fact that the e-mails included an erroneous report, expressed our regret and responded sincerely, and now we and “K” Line have reached an amicable settlement in relation to that claim.
