

DELAYS REPORTED ACROSS SUPPLY CHAIN

November 30, 2020,

Dear Valued Customer,

Please be advised that carriers across the supply chain (ports, rail network and trucking) are experiencing delays due to congestion, and capacity and equipment shortages.

There is potential impact to operations and the flow of goods throughout the supply chain.

For more information, please see these JOC.com articles:

This is a dynamic situation that is evolving every day. We will monitor and issue further updates as needed. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact your APL Logistics Account Manager or local APL Logistics office.

Sincerely,

APL Logistics
